

ECS Update

January 2010

For All Students

Special Calendar Notes

Semester Break

ECS observes a noon dismissal on Friday, January 15 as teachers work to close out 1st semester. In the event that Fairfax County calls for an inclement-weather late entry, ECS will not open on January 15. ECS is closed on Monday, January 18 in observance of MLK Day and holds a teacher work day (no extended care or classes) on Tuesday, January 19. Second semester classes begin on Wednesday, January 20.

Spirit Week

This year's annual ECS Spirit Week will be Monday through Friday, February 1-5. Details will be released later in January.

Reminders

Inclement Weather Policy

ECS follows Fairfax County public school inclement weather cancellations and delays as announced by the local news media. Extended care will open 1½ hours before school on days with delayed entry. On days with early dismissal, ECS allows students to be picked up before the dismissal time and encourages parents to come as soon as possible. ECS will not provide after-school extended care under early dismissal conditions.

Arrival Procedures

Please use the back parking lot to drop students off in the morning. You should park in marked parking spaces in the front lot if you need to enter the building. Do not use the front lot for dropping students off at the beginning of the school day. Do not park vehicles even temporarily in the back parking lot before or during the school day.

Boxtops for Education Programs

Don't forget to leave your properly-prepared boxtops in the collection box at the front desk.

In the event of a FCPS inclement weather delayed entry on Wednesday or Thursday of exam week, ECS will adjust the daily schedule so that both exam periods will be held.

In the event of a FCPS inclement weather delayed entry on Friday of exam week, ECS classes/exams will be cancelled on Friday (Friday's "noon dismissal" will not occur later). Exams will be administered in accordance with the weather-closings explained below.

In the event of FCPS inclement weather closings during exams, ECS will push back the exam schedule: the first exam(s) missed will be administered on the first day classes resume.
